Dear Mr. McKeever,

Most of the help I can give you is in my book FRAME-UP. You do not say whether you have it. If you don't and can't get it there, I have bought copies and add the cost of insured mail, making the total cost $10.50.

The cheapest way to get the transcript is to get Clay Blair's ugly book. The differences between it and the typescript are minor.

There were other court proceedings of which I have transcripts, prior to the mis-trial, but I can't let them away from here.

I am not a lawyer, but thanks for the complement.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
